Dear Mr. Texan:

In the summer of 1968 a poem was written by me and sent to the Chamber of Commerce at Dayton, Texas. Its essence was to simply identify the geographic location of Dayton. By a coincidence, Dayton, Texas is the birthplace of the then Governor of Texas, Price Daniel.

Seeing a chance for some free publicity, the local "Highway" handed the poem with my letter to the local newspaper, who in turn published it on the front page.

The Houston Press and other newspapers in Texas printed the poem and soon the leading newspapers in Boston and New England carried the story —

Their plan had worked — the story was snowballing and picking up speed from day to day.

I was phoned, long distance by the president of Dayton's Chamber of Commerce, who invited me to come to Texas — I told him I would think it over.

After a few days had gone by, the president of the Chamber of Commerce evidently was fretting not to lose this chance of free publicity, he called again, this time making several promises and a challenge to entice me to come to Texas —

I finally accepted his challenge and made the trip with my mother and my wife.

These men wanted publicity on one hand, and to humiliate me on the other. The newspapers were aware of only the "Good" part of the story — They succeeded in both —

A Rodeo was held; supposedly in my honor and an admission was charged to the public. (I did not receive a red cent).

I was asked to ride a horse in the rodeo arena. I was to come in at a gallop, holding the reins with one hand and waving the Texas hat they gave me with the other.

I did this, but no one asked the "Yank" if he could ride a horse. The next day with the heat up in the middle nineties they coaxed and prodded me to bull-doze a steer, which I did (I have movies to prove this).

I was made to drap the confederate flag around me —

I did all the things I was asked to do good naturally. Jeffrey did not do the things they had promised over the phone and in a letter to me. Their promise was the reason I made the trip.

Jeffrey was selected and humiliated. I had to pay all the expenses of the trip from Boston to Texas.

I am a "Damn Yank" to the Texans and my poem opened a door for them to capitalize on the situation and at the same time ridicule a northerner; their feelings were vented — but how small I see those few.

Since then — Adlai Stevenson visited Texas and he was "Spit" upon — then — our beloved President — John Fitzgerald Kennedy also a Bostonian, was brutally murdered —

I think it fitting and proper at this time, for all decent Texans to heed the call of the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Memorial Library Fund —

Send some of those Texas dollars to Boston, so that in death, our beloved President may be honored by giving to the American people the library he so earnestly strived for.

Personally, I love Texas, and as a Texas citizen am trying to reach your ears and your hearts to a cause I know all good Texans approve. Show Boston and the Nation that "Texas" is not a dirty word up here.

Dear Jack,

Just a note to you to keep your chin up. I am following your trial with much interest and can not believe that an injustice will be done in your case.

It is quite evident that the citizens of Dallas, those who have the say, will leave no stone unturned to try and redeem themselves at your expense.

I would say, Jack, that you should not be discouraged if the first trial should go against you. There is the appeal, which as you know will be out of Dallas and will be before different people.

Your attorney in charge, Mr. Belli, appears to me to be a very brilliant man.

In case you have wondered why I have such an interest in your case, I might say that first I approve of what you did. Second, I was aware of the atmosphere in Texas before the assassination of President Kennedy. I have no regard for the "right wing".

Their "press releases" stating that Oswald tried to kill General Walker and now Nixon is ridiculous. They are anticipating the Warren Committee Report.

Remember this, Jack, there are millions of Americans in your corner. Most people have opinions about everything, but lack the guts to back them up.

With best regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
Morris M. Payne

Dear Jack your trial way before you get the mailing you. What a contract in these two books.

I have thought a good many times of the song that was written in England at the time of the Nazi bombings. It came at a time the people needed a moral boost, and would come along like this. "There'll be blue birds over the white cliffs of Dover just you wait and see."

What has happened to you could have happened in so good many cities and to many a person.
If it had been a premeditated affair I would look at it differently.

I am not a Senator over here at Biverton, just a Carpenter with a sympathetic heart. Mrs Fullerton is a School Teacher we have raised five fine children.

This article is a condensation of a pamphlet also entitled "The Legend of President Kennedy's Death" available from Our Sunday Visitor Book Department, 100 Plaza, Huntington, Indiana 46750. We can copy, numerous documents for book orders. Father Sheridan, Director of the Catholic Information Center, Los Angeles.

WHY didn't the President develop a cold that winter? Who wasn't it raining so his car's protective bubble top would be in place? Wasn't there even some international emergency that would have kept him in the White House? Why did he have to change his route through Dallas? Why? Why was President Kennedy murdered?

Why was Lee Oswald on the loose that morning when he had been recognized by so many as having Marxist tendencies, an anti-social background, a psychotic personality and a dangerous hostility towards the city? Why wasn't he seen carrying a gun, or noticed scampering around the route of the President's motorcade?

There are, of course, simple answers to these questions, but they cannot bring back the President, nor can they even begin to explain why a man who symbolized to an entire unique degree the hopes and dreams of America should be cut down like a blossom of his manhood by an armed madman.

Viewed merely as the unfortunate act of a gun-totin' hooligan, President Kennedy's death would be an unrelieved tragedy. But there is something deep in the human heart that forbids us to believe ourselves to be playthings of fate, and that there is in the Faith, the Faith in God and in God's Providence, that assures us that whatever God's eye is upon us and His ear attentive to us in all our ways, and that there is a reason, a reason somewhere beyond our comprehension, but a merciful and good reason why He permits what may seem to us even the most meaningless heresy.

National soul searching

In the atmosphere of agony, grief and frustration that followed in the wake of the President's death there began, spontaneously, a national examination of conscience. The once apathetic mass in the country instinctively thought of the moral breakdown that seems to be going on apparently everywhere. They spoke openly and bluntly about the hate, dishonesty, violence and domestic infidelity that are clearly a part of contemporary America. They condemned extremism in all its forms, malicious gossip and the crude, irrelevant and dangerously sensationalist character of some of the reporting in the American press.

Dear Jack:

Of course, Belli has his hands full, and a lot of guys here are for you. One thing for sure, this States attorney, Wade will be after you. After all, didn't you wreck his chances to be governor?

You'll have to face it Jack, Oswald was more important than you....anyway here's wishing you luck. By the way, I am from your home town, west side, Kedzie and Volk, later moved to that "fine" neighborhood of Western and Harrison...and come to think of it, Belli was once going to take my son's case. I wrote him a couple of years ago from Seville Spain. Anyway, once again, let's see you make it.

Dear Mr. Bell

I would like to give my information as an epileptic in behalf of Mr. Bell.
This type of illness can begin at any time, at any age and due to any number of things. An injury, persecution, strain, organic disease, or mental stress can contribute to the onset.

I was treated by a Dallas physician for quite some time. My illness is under control. The patient I am telling his biography is and cannot hurt himself. A person can do anything he wants to do as long as he is keeping it and does not run to my doctor made the statement he did not know which of these factors contributed to the onset of the attack, but the patient himself has to determine the cause, this being that factor from causing him disease, a person can also have an attack of epilepsy without knowing it. This usually happens in a la sleep, an attack is a release of stems like energy and can be a split-second act of which the patient is unaware.

Mr. Jack Ruby,

Dear sir:

I have read much of your troubles, which has presented me to wonder if you did not have similar trouble like I had.

When I was about 70 years old I came across two friends who had just had a fight in front of the corner drug store. A doctor some 35 or 40 feet about 185^{lb} had just beaten a much older & weaker man ~~so~~ ^{so} bad, had him crumpled down hat and glasses off face bleeding, he up over him cursing and using the most profane language, N.F.SOB. I stood by, two passed by and tried to quiet him he shoved them aside. I didn't think of having anything to do with it until an ex policeman came in on the other side, so I thought I would go in and help him quiet the man, just before I got to him something picked me up and thrust my whole weight 190^{lb} against him with my fist in his mouth. As soon as I came to myself I would not have done so for anything. I will never know the cause, certain^{two} was one of the unseen powers, that causes us to do and think all we do, the right or the wrong, the Lord or the devil, I can't think it was the devil, as there was no forethought or malice.

You have my sympathy and I hope you will come out alright here, but the most important is the FINAL JUDGEMENT.

Yours very truly,

My dear friend Jack Ruby

Excuse me for writing again but I saw this birthday card & I felt sure would give you such a lovely gift. I had a grown cat just like Tillie who John Morris was alive. She was like a dog when it came to Trotter alone bleeds us when I decided to take her with John. When he left he went on his freight train down to Louisville.

My goodness one thing for sure, when you are free again look at it now (now) everytime you see a feline get your wife see don't think of the name Tillie if I do.

It is so good for you having brothers and sisters;
I never had any. So we lost mother down when I was 2.
I have no close friends and relatives except you (Dale 2, haven't lost your friend) & Mama. She was born 2 yrs ago.
She thinks she is yet living. I do have two aunts miles away (James & Charles) but I am not fond of them. Papa & mama had been my world since 1944 when I met John. Virginia. So I was especially sad at losing Papa 18 days ago. June 1962 (and I was 8 yrs old).
I flew down to Louisville to see him off at the airport. After the funeral home near Papa's carpet on "cold" Auntie & I flew back to Kentucky. I didn't feel like talking so I sat away from them & merely acknowledged when they "ordered" me to take a chair closer to them. I felt I would just start crying any moment so I sat staring at papa's face & his coat & as I gazed at their gray cluttered out of place I left and went to the back steps of down the Hall. This house was a love hated I gave way to my heartbreak & was lost in a flood of tears.
I was alone - 2 more hearing none of the other when suddenly these two severe aunts like a couple Romeo & Julietine scolded me relentlessly for giving way to crying. They a lot of life have to do the - when all I wanted was that me had set - my sweet beloved paper zone - the dear friend who God always been my friend moral support, who had taken my feet around the world and I done so much. In 4 never so kind. He last summer inland, & when it was, in 1952 we expected after my first with him & when he said as he left he would I didn't have to live alone & far away (2 miles), at that time there was a small gang of teenagers who went around breaking windows at night. The 1st, it without cause

- only for fun or just "kick" they called it. I had a storm window in back broken. Tom & I finally found it up. Tom wrote to the police here. It didn't stop them.
Our little Tom, he cared about me. He weighed the same as I do 105 I'm never forgotten anyone. I gave the robbing movie away or perhaps they all enjoyed in big criminal action.
There are a lot of them still here in the area. The robbery the store register & book of the employee & customers. It's in big ice storage vaults. Looks like that would guard people had nothing.

I was happy to hear over my radio last Friday at 7 AM that you were free and the morning then fast sometime.
Sometimes I can't keep track the time as I think of what you are enduring and know that is from some friends. I have been thinking for you to be set free. That has meant a lot.

I include another air mail envelope as you may not always have one handy. Write to me when you can. Please don't forget me. I would be awful downcast if you did. I have faith in you and I care. Whatever you do, please let me to write to me. It will be wonderful to hear over the radio that you are free when this trial ends.

The Dallas Court here handled the queen mother nicely today.
She sure carried herself magnificently circumstantial if allowed as affidavits at the trial.

I didn't intend to write anything sad. You will on trial for your previous life and under a severe trial. Your beautiful letter from listen of your life has encouraged me to write & I feel that you are a close friend now. I studied home law while in College & have different areas legal - and medical - politics from Lord Willingdon and others in their country not to far away, in fact they are, I believe, more

This is my special prayer for you -- May God be with you all day through,
And in His goodness may He bless Your future days with happiness.

Dear Mr. Jack Ruby,

You don't care one bit does is friend of the Stephensons, the people who have been writing to you quite often now to let know you where. My name is Ed Lewis and the very soon about the nice fiction you're in, and this speaking for all my friends.

Mr. Ruby, I don't know if the letter means anything to you but I just want to write to you anyway, kind of to show you up if I can. Mr. Ruby it'd be very spotful to you if you would please write back to me, I would always treasure your letter, my address is:

Dear Mr. Phelps,

I am ill now and sometimes we often beyond our power to control.
This condition is this, is such a condition - that Suppose something like unrest among the people who are now living, the existing material things like this book, as shall have time to pass for you can see - if you are not interested all good idea for you.

God lead you when the way seems filled With loneliness
and dread,
And send the sunshine of His love
To light the path ahead.

Man have forgotten about God and what He did for the sins of the World. But Mr Ruby please don't push God aside but all your trust in me if you want a Christian Come to God right now this is the time you need God. Repent right now tell God you are sorry for all the sins you have committed and ask God to forgive you and if you will just believe that God will do just what He say then the whole in all Rudys Doing great things just trust in God He is a God of love please pray to him for all the things that God give you. May God grant you and what you say of God in His Heart Mr Ruby: pray tell God what you do and he is a kind God for I prayed Him one day when down a lost river in Texas I called on God to come

Dear Jack:

I hope by now you have received my letter. I was about to mail it Thursday morning on my way to work, but, the day before I suffered a strained back, and although it didn't seem too painful at the time, the next morning when I started to move around it was all I could do to walk a short distance. I wasn't very bad when I sat still but I suddenly realized that I could not work on the floor a whole day. I decided to call my boss and let her know that her most valuable salesgirl (that's me) was indisposed, and what do you know she didn't seem upset at all by my inconvience and apparently she believed my story. I guess she thought I was telling the truth - and I was. I told brother "Ry" about it and he said "it was due to old age." Some people don't seem to care about my feelings at all. For that unkind remark when I make soup I'll throw ashes in it - that'll teach him. I have been back to work in fact I'll only stayed home one day as I said earlier "how could they manage without a good worker like myself?" Things are just about the same here since we'll work to don't have to much time to give this place the attention it needs. This will have to do for now - hope to write again soon.

LOVE ANN

Dear Mrs. Remond,

I have hitherto written but little here of the personal, moral, social & political life of the slaves, & I will now do so no more. Many & well argu'd propositions have been & still are advanced by the colored people & others who profess to be for us. I would, however, have nothing to do with such, & I hope will never do. But, you will see what I mean when I say that such & such - persons are for us. I have every year written to some of the best heads, & have written to most - who give it as their reason for doing so, I have had nothing but a few words from them. Now if you will allow me to speak of the lives of the slaves, that is to say, and of their labors, that is to say, that is to say, I will do so.

Tuesday
Dear Mr. Ruby: —
I am flying you down to New York & I will get you a place to stay which will be in the area around the U.S. Steel Building.
Please let us know when you get there so we can meet you at the airport.
Take care of yourself and don't worry so much about your son. I do not know your son's name but I would do anything I can for him.
Please write me again soon. I hope you will have a good time.
Yours truly,
John Doe

I am praying every day for your safe return. I have given you my respects. So far as your concerning Syria, I trust the English will not let you down. And you will see you are much more successful if you enter now your Country. It is now still more difficult to get in the head than it would be in order to win. Truly I pray like this assurance. This is all.

Please also give your a little to know that many people are on your side of the thing.

With best regards. Please excuse me for not to let you get you the speech. I can only imagine how you feel at the first. Sincerely

To Jack Rubenstein, known as Jack Ruby, with hopes that he will soon be appreciated with the respect due a public-spirited citizen:

A TRIBUTE TO AN A-1 CITIZEN LISTEN, DALLAS, TEXAS, TO AN ANGUISHED NATION'S CRY, LISTEN, ALSO, ANYONE, WHO'D PLAUNT THE LORD ON HIGH, LISTEN, COMMUNISTIC SCUM, WE'LL GET YOU YET, AND ON THE RUN.
WE HAD SETTLED ALL OUR DIFFERENCES RIGHT WITHIN THE POLLS, AND WHEN ANARCHY SHOWED ITS UGLY HAND, AN AVENGING ANGEL TOOK OUR STAND.
AN ANARCHIST DIED, 'TWAS ALL HE DESERVED.
AS SURELY AS A CHURCH BELL TOLLS, AS SURELY AS A DRUMMER ROLLS.
"AS YE LIVE BY THE SWORD, YE DIE BY THE SWORD".
SO AN ANARCHIST DIED,
JUSTICE WAS SERVED.

PLEASE NOTE THAT I MENTIONED ANARCHY, WHICH SHOULD HELP AS IT IS A LEGAL FACT THAT WHEN A PRESIDENT OR RULER, CHOSEN OR ACCEPTED BY THE PEOPLE IS ASSASSINATED, THE COUNTRY IS TEMPORARILY IN A STATE OF ANARCHY, WHICH IS CERTAINLY ONE OF THE WORST CRIMES, AND AS MANY AMERICAN CITIZENS HAVE PUBLICLY STATED, INCLUDING IN WRITING IN "VOICE OF THE PEOPLE", DAILY NEWS, NEW YORK CITY, "JACK RUBY DID WHAT ANY AMERICAN WOULD DO IF HE HAD THE CHANCE".

With hopes that patriots everywhere will rally to your defense, An American citizen, a lady.
